2019

■ Questioning Together - First Mondays of the month, year-round – A supportive group that discusses questions of faith and meaning over dinner. Saint Mark's Cathedral, Capitol Hill - 7:30 – 9:00 p.m. youngadults@saintmarks.org

■ Evening Episcopalians – Sunday evenings, once-a-month. Curious about the traditions, histories and flavors of other churches in our diocese? Let's check out the 5 p.m. services at different parishes in the Seattle area, and maybe go for dinner/drinks afterward. youngadults@ecww.org

■ Nacho Theology - Fourth Thursdays of the month, T.S. McHugh's Pub, Lower Queen Anne, 7:15 p.m. hosted by Saint Paul's, info@stpaulseattle.org

■ YA Bible Study - Tuesday nights, February & March, Chainline Brewing Company, Kirkland. We'll focus on the New Testament and the stories of the people who surround Jesus. For more info. or to request a ride, please contact: youngadults@ecww.org

■ Film Nights @ D-House – Diocesan House Basement, Capitol Hill. Save the dates: Fridays, March 29, April 26 & May 10, 7:00 p.m. Three extraordinary films curated by our resident film guru explore how faith plays out in the world, for better or worse. More details to come.

■ BBQ with the Bishop at Seattle's Historic Leary Mansion - Thursday, June 20 – Let's take a behind-the-scenes tour of the grand house then enjoy casual discussion and dinner with our personable Bishop, Greg Rickel. Diocesan House, Capitol Hill. 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. faithformation@ecww.org
